COSC Communications Team

We want to strategise and develop a communications plan to encourage the church family to be involved in outreach as part of Wesley's Direction 2025 on Intentional Discipleship. We hope to create awareness about the ministries of COSC at the wider church level (e.g. church services, Wesley Highlights, Wesley Tidings, Ministry Fair and COSC Weekend), so as to mobilise more volunteers to serve.

Position	Communications Team Member
Description of duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write articles about COSC programmes and activities for Church newsletter and publications. • Formulate interview questions for beneficiaries who have received the blessings of God. • Help publicise events and galvanise the wider Church family to support COSC events. • Arrange for video recording of interview and do scripting.
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enjoy meeting people. • Enjoy writing and have a good command of English. • Attend COSC Main Committee meetings only when relevant communication matters are discussed. • Work with COSC staff and leaders and other relevant ministries, e.g. Church Communications Ministry.
Commitment	Minimum 12 months

Wesley Financial Assistance (WFA)

The Ministry recognises that there is a segment of people in our society who have been marginalised through various reasons and are therefore living in conditions of hardship. WFA provides financial assistance to the poor & needy individuals and families regardless of race or religion. It is to this group of people that the ministry seeks to reach out to, to share God's love. This in practical terms mean that the ministry must go to where the people are; to meet their needs is first to understand their way of life, the environment from which they come from and the culture of hardship. The ministry endeavours to win the trust and friendship of the community through Christian social care and concern.

Position	Fund Disbursement Volunteer
Description of duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do home visitation and disburse Wesley Financial Assistance funds to clients on a monthly basis. • Provide holistic social and emotional support to the poor & needy and dysfunctional families, single parents and struggling individuals. • Take client out to lunch periodically and during festive occasions.
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Committed and matured Christians who have a heart to reach out and work with dysfunctional families. • Basic knowledge and understanding of family issues e.g. single parenting, marital problem and financial management. • Willing listener. • Able to provide sound guidance in a gentle firm manner. • Having a servant's attitude and showing God's love through service. • Accountable with cash and NTUC vouchers.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to speak Mandarin, Chinese dialects, Malay or Tamil.
Commitment	Monthly commitment for a minimum of 1 year.

To express Christ's love in the community so that lives may be blessed, and a sense of belonging may be cultivated through friendships and belief in a greater hope – this is our Wesley@Besar Mission. Our Wesley@Besar ministry seeks to foster a faith community where residents will feel welcomed and find safety, support and spiritual friendships. At Wesley@Besar, we serve various segments of the Berseh community through the work of our COSC sub-ministries: children & youth through our Wesley Youth Centre (WYC), families & the community through Wesley Community Ministry (WCM) and the elderly through Wesley Befrienders to Older Persons (WBOP).

Wesley Youth Centre (WYC)

In the heart of Jalan Berseh, at Block 25 & 26 is Wesley Youth Centre. For over 15 years, WYC has been a familiar sight to the neighbourhood, forging friendships with the children, youths and their families.

WYC's mission is "In Christian love, bless and befriend youths and their families". We want to ensure that ample opportunities are created to develop our children and youths in their physical, social, emotional and cognitive abilities. We also want to provide them with experiences of friendship, a sense of belonging, leadership and recognition.

Wesley Migrant Ministry (WMM)

Wesley's outreach to migrants began in December 2008 with Karunya Community Clinic, a medical outreach of Asia Evangelistic Fellowship (AEF). The outreach events were extended to outings, English classes and computer classes. Through these engagements, the ministry has been able to build relationships and sustained communities with the migrant brothers, beyond the ad hoc acts of kindness and blessings.

Position	Befriender
Description of duties	This opportunity involves the volunteer contacting the migrant brother individually via WhatsApp to find out basic information such as which dormitory they are currently residing, if they have any immediate needs or concerns, as well as if we can continue to engage them in a meaningful manner. We will also introduce the migrants to our ongoing basic and intermediate English classes for more in-depth engagement.
Requirements	Having a willing heart to reach out to brothers in Singapore, as well as patience and a heart of understanding as their English might not be their first language. If the brothers are open and agreeable to receiving care packs, we do periodically distribute care packs. The volunteer, sometimes with aid of their Small Group, has the opportunity to plan, pack and distribute the packs.
Commitment	Short to Medium Term – Depending on the willingness of the migrants to converse with the volunteer.
Contact	Evangeline Leong evangelinel@wesleymc.org

Position	English / Computer Class Instructor
----------	--

Description of duties	This opportunity involves the volunteer conducting English / computer classes in the dormitories. The aim of the class is to boost the standard of English both spoken and written of the migrants. Learning can come through different activities, videos and even interaction with the migrants. A bond is usually formed and opportunities can arise for a more personal relationship beyond the student and instructor role.
Requirements	Having a willing heart to reach out to brothers in Singapore, as well as patience and a heart of understanding as their English might not be their first language. Willingness to travel down to the dorms as well as committing time usually after a work day on a weekday. Having experience in instructing or designing curriculum would be a plus.
Commitment	Short to Medium Term 9 weeks consecutive.

Wesley Prison Ministry (WPM)

WPM reaches out to the inmates at Changi Men's Prison and those in rehabilitation programs at the halfway houses. At these touch points, WPM conducts chapel services, prays and shares the Word of God with the incarcerated. Upon their release, WPM continues to be their community of Christian support, befriending and sharing life in their journey of faith and integration. As the needs of the beneficiaries evolve, WPM also extends care and support to families and children of the incarcerated through home visits and the Children's Care Club.

In anticipation of our wider and deeper engagements with the beneficiaries, we see a need to increase our pool of WPM volunteers. We would like to invite Wesley members, both brothers and sisters to serve with WPM in the various roles. There is much to do, feel free to connect with us for a chat.
